Cambridge

The PONTE EU Open Day at CUH is to be held at the William Harvey Lecture Theatre on 31 January 2012 from 9.00-17.00.

A rich and diverse programme, in which you can learn about EU funding opportunities and how they could apply to your research interests. You will have the opportunity to find out how to prepare and submit projects and who is available to support you. We have invited international speakers and we will also present projects and project opportunities in the field of:

- semantic interoperability projects - how to make data bases understand each other
- data stratification projects in health care - better use of available data for improved care
- legal perspectives, and more
